THE LIVER INVIGORATOR!
PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,
COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS,

is one of the best Purgative and Livar Medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

The LIVER is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence. LIVER—having ceased to do its duty. For the diseases of that organ, one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than twenty years, to find some remedy wherewith to counteract the many deranglements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with LIVER COMPLAINT, in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and conviction is certain.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, FURNISHING THE BLOOD, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are CURED, AND, WHAT IS BETTER, PREVENTED, by the occasional use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

One dose taken before retiring, prevents Nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures COSTIVENESS.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia

☞ One dose of two teaspoonsful will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

One bottle taken for the cause of the disease, will remove dyspepsia.

Only one dose immediately obstruction remove and makes a perfect cure.

One dose often repeated will effectually relieve CHOLIC, while

MORBUS, and a preventive is a sure cure for CHOLERA of CHOLERA.

☞ Only one bottle is necessary to throw out of the system the effects of mediscine after a long sickness.

☞ One bottle taken for JAUNDICE removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes the food digest well.

One dose often repeated cures Chronic Diarrhœa, Summer and Bowel complaints in its worst forms, while Summer-ild almost to

One or two doses attacks caused by Worms in children; there is no surer, safer, or speedier remedy in the world, as it never fails.

A few bottles cures Dropsy by exciting the absorbents to action.

We take pleasure in recommending the medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type, and it operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

☞ Mix Water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR
IS A SCIENTIFIC MEDICAL DISCOVERY, and is daily working cures, almost too great to believe. It cures as if by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of Liver Complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Headache, all of which are the result of a DISEASED LIVER.

The Restorative of Prof. O. J. Wood for Restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival, volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

☞ The Hair.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request, that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is now covered completely with the tiniest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate. Coshocton, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.

O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Hackinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some State in the West, should you wish to make such an arrangement as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being fully convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell. Yours truly.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard, to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth; both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly three bottles.

Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

ROSE ATHERTON.

The summer days are coming,
The blossoms deck the bough;
The bees are gaily humming,
And the birds are singing now.
We have had our May Day garlands,
We have crown'd our May day Queen
With a coronal of roses,
Set in leaves of brightest green.
But her reign is nearly over,
The Spring is on the wane—
O, haste the gentle Summer
To our pleasant land again.

The Minstrel of the moonlight,
The love-lorn Nightingale,
Hath sung this month of music
To the Rose Queen of the Vale!
And what though he be silent,
As night comes slowly on;
We'll have a dance on the green-sward,
To sweet music of our own.
O, the Summer days are coming,
And the summer nights more dear—
O, haste thee, gentle Summer,
For there's joy when thou art near.

We'll rise and hail thee early;
Before the sun hath dried
The dew drops that will sparkle
On the green hills by our side.
And when the blaze of noon-day
Glares upon the thirsty flowers,
We will seek the welcome covert
Of our Jasmine-shaded bowers,
Oh the Summer days are coming,
And the summer nights more dear—
Oh haste thee gentle Summer,
For there's joy when thou art near.

Select Miscellany.

"Lost, a Child Lost."

Rev. Dr. Eddy publishes in the Chicago Advocate, the following interesting sketch:

Monday evening of last week we started homeward. In the room below we found Mrs. E. in waiting, and together we started up State street. About half way we met our eldest son, and saw that he had some tidings of evil. He could only say, 'Little Ramy is lost, and we cannot find him anywhere.' The little one is the lamb of our fold, a bright eyed boy between two and three years of age, with fair hair hanging in sunny ringlets.—Dear child—his little feet always patter on the hall when we ring the bell at noon, his arms have always 'a hug,' his rosy lips a kiss for papa.

We hastened home, and ascertained that he had been gone nearly an hour. The immediate neighborhood had been searched in vain. We started instantly—and the streets, alleys, etc., within search, were traversed, but no tidings. Night was at hand, and evidently our child was beyond our neighborhood, and that cold night was lost in the midst of this great Babel.

Notice was sent to the police station, and to some of the churches having service that evening. A friend procured the crier. We had often heard that bell, and the cry of lost child, but never felt the tones so sadly as we heard them that night, as he cried, 'Lost child—a little boy not three years old, lost from 112 Edina Place—bare-headed, light curly hair; had on a red dress, stockings, and little slippers.' Oh, those cries! We have heard them ever since. Kind friends came to our aid, strangers came with tearful sympathy, parties were formed who patrolled the streets, and alleys, in all direction, but came back with the sad word 'No tidings.'

The hours wore on, and near midnight the search was given up for the night.

Dear reader, may you never pass a night of such suspense! We sat by the fire, and our hearts would bound as a footstep neared our gate. Perhaps it is some one from the police station with our child.—No; the steps sound on. Our door is passed!

We did pray, we did commit our child to the All Father, and that alone sustained us. But we could not shut out the vision which crowded upon us unbidden. Now we imagined we heard his wail above the moaning of the tempest and sighing of the waves; now we saw him lying upon the cold ground, those locks frozen to the earth; then again we saw him caught in the net-work of railroads on Clarke street, and crushed to a shapeless mass.

Slowly passed the hours. Will daylight never come? It came at last. Ere we began our search again, we went into the breakfast room, and there, lying upon the sewing machine was his little hat.—We turned from it, and in the corner stood his rocking-horse, with the reins drawn over his head, just as he left it; while on the table was his plate, with his high chair beside it. Up to that moment we maintained our firmness, but we could no longer.

Friends came to assist us. God bless them! Never did we need them more—never did we appreciate them more highly. The authorities placed the police at our service, to make the search thorough.

Still no tidings. Nearly eighteen hours had passed, each hope had been crushed, and the prospects grew darker.

At this juncture came a German to the house, and said that if our child was the one described in the morning papers, he was safe and would bring him. We did not see him, and on learning the news, drove to the place we suppose he designated, but found no child. Homeward again we did come. The friends in the search had in part returned, and were awaiting the result of this intelligence ere they should go again. The anxiety was too deep for words. At last we saw some one coming—how far one can see who looks for a lost child—nearer and nearer. It was—it was our child!! God be praised, he was safe!

Sacred be the mother's emotion—mothers can imagine them!

Our friends gathered with swimming eyes about the child. There was no need to call them to 'come and rejoice with us.' There were three other children who had not been in peril; three who had not wandered: three whom we loved as we loved the fourth; but O, there was in our hearts. there was among our neighbors, more joy over the one, than over the three that went not astray! More—aye more! We did not love them less, but the joy was over the rescued!

An honest German found the little wanderer a long distance from home, and saw that he was lost. He took him up and carried him to his house, placed him in the crib and rocked him to sleep, had washed and fed him, and restored him to our arms. We asked him to accept a pecuniary recompense, but he refused, saying in broken English, 'I have children, too; if one of mine was lost, I would want some one to take him up. No, no—no money;' and he buttoned his coat over his noble Teutonic heart, and bid us good bye.

A Yarn by Sut Lovegood.

We have often heard, but never before published, the following yarn on Dr. Thompson, of Atlanta, a generous, good man, and a tip-top landlord and wit; but he certainly caught it once.

A traveler called very late for breakfast, and the meal had to be hurriedly prepared. Thompson, feeling that the "feed" was not quite up to the mark, made all sorts of apologies all around the eater, who worked on in silence, never raising his head beyond the affirmative influence of his fork, by an act even acknowledging mine host. This sulky demeanor rather "flead" the doctor, who, changing the range of his battery, stuck his thumbs in the arm-holes of his vest, expanded his chest by robbing the room of half its air, and said:—

"Now, mister, dod durn me if I haint made all the apology necessary, an' more too, considering the breakfast and who gets it; and now I tell you I have seen airtier, worse looking, and darned sight smaller breakfasts than this several times."

The weary, hungry one, meekly laid down his tools, swallowed the bite in transitu, placed the palms of his hands together, and modestly looking up at the vexed and fuming landlord, shot him dead with the following words:

"Is—what—you—say—true?"

"Yes, sir," came with a vindictive promptness.

"Well, then, I'll be darned, hoss, if you haint out-traveled me!"

The fellow had nothing to pay at that house.

FIDELITY.—Never forsake a friend.—When enemies gather around—when sickness falls on the heart—when the world is dark and cheerless—then is the time to try true friendship. They who turn from the scene of distress, betray their hypocrisy, and prove that interest only moves them. If you have a friend who loves you and studies your interest and happiness—be sure to sustain him in adversity. Let him feel that his former kindness is appreciated, and that his love was not thrown away. Real fidelity may be rare, but it exists in the heart. Who has not seen and felt its power? They only deny its worth and power, who never have loved a friend, or labored to make a friend happy.

A MOTHER'S LOVE.—The love of a mother is never exhausted, it never changes, it never tires. A father may turn his back on his child, brothers and sisters may become inveterate enemies, husbands may desert their wives, wives husbands. But a mother's love endures through all; good repute, in bad repute, in the face of the world's condemnation, a mother still loves on, and still hopes that her child may turn from his evil ways, and repent; still she remembers the infant smile that once filled her bosom with rapture, the merry laugh, the joyful shout of his childhood, the opening promise of his youth; and she can never be brought to think him all unworthy.

A CHANCE.—Any "respectable" man, who wants to marry ten thousand dollars with a wife thrown in, has the opportunity offered him. We see it stated that "the chief of a band of gypsies encamped near Indianapolis, offers the hand of his daughter, with a dower of $10,000, to any respectable man who will marry her." That "gal" will be in demand.

How Mike Fagan Doctored His Pig.

Mr. Michael Fagan is a very worthy representative from "Green Erin," residing in a small dwelling in a small village near Boston. Michael is industrious and strives hard to turn an honest penny to account, whenever, and however, there may be the slightest prospect of profit. Michael has a little patch of ground behind his house, where he supports a few ducks and chickens; and the freshest eggs in the neighborhood can always be found on his premises, for he never allows himself to be possessed of more than a single dozen at any time before disposing of them. In addition to his stock of poultry, Michael purchased a young pig, which after four months petting and nursing, he prided himself upon exhibiting to his friends and acquaintances, as one the "swatest and kindest craythers in the wurld."

But Michael's pig took sick, and from his coughing and sneezing symptoms, it was certainly evident that he had contracted a very bad cold.

Close by the residence of this honest Hibernian, there dwells the village physician, a kind hearted man, and very skillful, whose practice is none of the largest. As he came from his house, a short time since, Michael stood at his gate, ruminating upon the chances in favor of his favorite porker, and observing the doctor, he hailed him with: "The top uv the mornin' to ye docthur?"

"Ah, Michael, how are you?"

"It's very well I am meself docthur—but perhaps ye'll be tellin' a poor man what he'd be afther doin, for his pig; ahone! ahone! he's very sick, docthur."

"Pig," exclaimed the doctor with a smile, "what pig, Michael, and what's the matter with him?"

"Shure he's very bad indade, so he is. A cowld, docthur, shneezin' and barkin the head off him and divil blasht the thing I can do wid him."

"Well, really, Michael, I can't say, I'm not a pig doctor!"

"Shure it's meself that knows that.—But if it was a gosson instead uv the darlin craythur what would I be afther doing wid him for the cowld he has?"

"Well," continued the doctor, considerately, "were it a child, Michael, perhaps I should recommend a mustard poultice to his back, and his feet put in hot water."

"It's meself that's obliged to ye, docthur, be dad I am," responded Mike, as the physician passed along, and he entered his house.

"Biddy!" he added, addressing his wife, "we'll cure the pig, so we will." In a short time the porker was invested in a strong mustard plaster from his tail to his ears. Notwithstanding his struggles, and his wheezings, and torture from the action of the unyielding plaster, a tub of almost boiling water was prepared, and into it poor piggy was soused above his knees. The result may be easily conceived.

Next morning, bright and early, Michael stood at the gate once more, awaiting the coming of the doctor, who soon made his appearance.

"Good morning, Mike, how does the pig come on?"

"O, be gorrah, docthur! it was mighty oncivil in ye to be trating a neighbor in that way, so it was."

"Why, what is the matter, what has happened, Michael?"

"Happen'd is it, I put the powltice on the pig, so I did, an' he squealed murther, an' be dad it's no wonder, for the wull roll'd off his back from head to tail."

"What!"

"Didn't I put the pig's feet in hot wather as ye tolwd me, an, be jabers the hoffs tumbled off uv him intirely!"

Poor Mike spoke truly. Through his ignorance he had blistered off the bristles, and with the hot water he scalded off poor grunter's feet. He died under this double dose, and though Michael has never since since asked the doctor upon similar matters, he still insists that it was "a mane thrick so it was."

TINCTURE OF IODINE ON CORNS.—Dr. Varges states that corns may be rapidly cured by the application of the tincture of iodine, the corn disappearing in the course of a few days if touched with the tincture several times a day. If the corn be situated between the toes it should be covered with a piece of linen steeped in a mixture of the tincture and glycerine.—Medical Times.

YANKEE IMPUDENCE.—The greatest instance of impudence on record, is that of a Yankee, who, in an Italian city, stopped a religious procession, in order to light his cigar from one of the holy candles. Ere the procession recovered from its astonishment, the audacious smoker had disappeared.

A Family Opposed to Newspapers.

The man who didn't take the paper, was in town yesterday. He brought his whole family in a two horse wagon. He still believed that General Taylor was President, and wanted to know if the "Kamskatkians" had taken Cuba, and if so, where they had taken it. He had sold his corn for thirty cents—the price being fifty-five—but on going to deposit the money, they told him it was mostly counterfeit.

The only hard money he had some three cent pieces; and these some sharper had "run on him" for half dimes. One of the boys went to a blacksmith's shop to be measured for a pair of shoes, and another mistook the market-house for a church. After hanging his hat on a meet hook, he piously took a seat on the butchers' stall, and listened to an auctioneer, whom he took to be the preacher. He left before "meetin" was out, and had no great opinion of the sermon.

One of the girls took a lot of seed onions to the post office to trade them for a letter. The oldest boy had sold two coon skins, and was on a bust. When last seen he had called for a glass of soda and water, and stood soaking his ginger-bread and making wry faces. The shop keeper mistaking his meaning, had given him a mixture of sal soda and water, and it tasted strongly of soap. But he'd learn tell of soda and water, and he was bound to gin it a fair trial. Some town fellers come in and called for a lemonade with a fly in it; whereupon our sharped friend turned his back and quietly wiped several flies into his drink.

We approached the old gentleman and tried to get him to subscribe but he would not listen to it. He was opposed to internal improvements, and he thought larnin was a wicked invention and vexation. None of his family ever learned to read, but one boy, and he teached school awhile and then went to studying diwinity!

Hard Work for Sambo.

Sambo was a slave to a master who was constitutionally addicted to lying. Sambo, being strongly devoted to his master, had, by dint of long practice, made himself an adept in giving plausibility to his master's largest stories. One day when the master was entertaining his guests in his customary manner, among other marvelous facts, he related an incident which took place in one of his hunting excursions.

"I fired at a buck," said he "at one hundred yards distance, and the ball passed through his left hind foot and through his head just back of his ear."

This evidently producing some little doubt upon the minds of some of his guests, he called upon Sambo to corroborate him.

"Yes, massa," said the almost confounded slave, after a moment's hesitation, "me see de ball hit 'im. Jes as massa lif up de gun to he eyes, de buck lif up him hine foot to scratch his ear, an' massa's ball go clean through him foot and head at the same time."

The guests were satisfied with this explanation, and swallowed the whole without further hesitation, but when his guests were gone, Sambo ventured upon his master's good humor so far as to remonstrate.

"For mighty sake, massa, when you tell anuder such a big lie, don't put um so far apart, me had debbilish hard work to get um togedder."

CURE FOR SCRATCHES.—H. Payne, of Lockport, communicates the following remedy for scratches in horses, which we have seen tried with good effect:

"When the horse comes in at night, his legs should be washed clean and rubbed as dry as may be; then apply good vinegar, rubbing it well to the skin.—Two applications a day are sufficient. I have always found it a sure preventive and a certain cure. If the legs have become cracked and sore, apply the vinegar freely, and add a piece of copperas size of a common hickory nut, to a quart of vinegar."

☞ A school-boy, of about six years of age, approached the master with a bold look and self confident air, and the following dialogue ensued:—

"May I be dismissed, sir?"

"What reason have you for making the request, Thomas?"

"I want to take my woman out sleighing, sir."

☞ It is an old and true saying, that a man should not marry unless he can support a wife; and from some examples that we have seen, we are begining to doubt seriously whether a woman can prudently marry unless she can support a husband.

☞ "A ruffian shot at me last night," said a penurious gentleman, "and my life was saved by the ball striking a silver dollar in my pocket." "Whoever takes true aim at your heart is very certain to hit a dollar," said one who knew him.

Fires and Distressing Accident.

On Thursday night last, the barns attached to the State Lunatic Hospital, at Harrisburg, were discovered to be on fire, about 11 o'clock. Every effort was made to save the adjoining properties by the Harrisburg firemen, who repaired to the spot, fortunately with success. The large new bank barn, which cost $2,000, together with 16 tons of hay, all the farm implements, including a number of costly agricultural machinery, harness, Steward's wagon, a dearborn wagon, a large farm wagon, seven horses, a lot of chickens and a couple of pigs were entirely consumed. The roof and attic of the gardener's house was burned. The entire loss is estimated at $4,000.

On the same night, a little after two o'clock, the barn attached to the Dauphin county Poor House was discovered to be on fire. With this there were consumed five horses, fourteen valuable milch cows, one large bull, a calf, 25 tons of hay, 50 bushels of rye, 40 bushels of potatoes and a number of chickens and ducks. The loss is estimated at $5,000.

While the Citizen Engine Company was proceeding to the fire at the Lunatic Asylum barn, one of the members, Samuel J. Miller, tripped and fell under the wheels of the engine which passed over his body under his arms. He was taken up in an insensible condition and borne to his residence where he died at 10 o'clock the next morning.

A man who gave his name as Martin Henry Wolf, who had been some 13 months in the Asylum, and had been pronounced crazy by the attending physician, was arrested as the supposed incendiary. While in the Asylum he became so violent that he was finally committed to jail in Harrisburg. On the day previous to the fire, the Court ordered him to be sent to the County Poor House, but the carriage which conveyed him there was not out of sight, ere he run off from the institution. He could give no satisfactory account of his whereabouts on the night of the fires and was accordingly committed for a further hearing.

Probable Effects of the War.

That the effects of the war news upon the business of this country will be very great cannot be questioned. Already it has caused a considerable advance in the price of breadstuffs, and bids fair to make flourishing times for our farmers. The New York Tribune advises the farmers throughout the country to plant and sow freely, persistently; for grain and meat are likely to be in demand next fall. The war which now threatens is unlikely to be a short and cannot be a little one. It is likely to array a million of men in arms against each other, subtracting many times that number from productive industry, to employ them in casting cannon, making powder, charging shells, etc. All these must eat, and battle fields are not well adapted to growth of food. We shall be disappointed if Europe does not afford us a large market for breadstuffs before the end of the current year.

Lord Derby, in a recent speech on the Italian question, in refering to the war which it will be noticed by the foreign news, in another column, has already been commenced, said that it would not be a war between two great nations contending for some definite object, but a war exciting the most violent passions, and once begun in Italy it will extend far beyond the limits of that country. Other passions will be roused, other interests will be touched, other nations will be called upon to interfere, and war originating in Italy, will certainly, at no distant period, extend far and wide, wrapping the whole of Europe in one general conflagration.

☞ The Governor has signed the bill authorizing Courts of Common Pleas to change the name of persons.

The Sinews of War.—Some idea may be formed of what the necessities of the nations, supposed to be on the eve of a great war, are likely to be in the event of an actual conflict, from the following statement of the loans which they have recently put in the market:—

France,	$100,000,000
Russia,	50,000,000
Austria,	30,000,000
Prussia,	45,000,000
Sardinia,	25,000,000

Common-sense prompts the inquiry—are such heavy borrowers in a condition to expend further millions, in any cause that could and ought to be settled be peaceful diplomacy or mediation?

☞ The cholera has been raging in the Northern part of Japan to a frightful extent. At Yeddo alone the deaths are reported at one hundred and fifty thousand in one month. Alisima and Odowara have also suffered greatly. The outbreak of this dreadful scourge so soon after the time the foreign embassies were at Yeddo has led the people to attribute to them its introduction into their country, and superstition points to the coincidence as a punishment for opening Japan to foreigners. By the latest accounts the disease was less virulent.

☞ We learn that our townsman, Col. L. W. Hall, delivered a lecture at Williamsburg, in this county, on Tuesday evening last, at the request of the ladies of that place, for the benefit of the "Mount Vernon Ladies Association." The audience was large and attentive and we doubt not was well entertained, as the Col. is able to get up something interesting on short notice.

The Poor House.

Messrs. Editors:—As E. McGraw, Esq., Stewart of the Blair County Poor House, has found it necessary to refrain from replying to my last article addressed to him three weeks ago, on the subject of his management of county affairs, and thereby declined my intimation to him to invite the tax payers to call at the Poor House and examine into the affairs for themselves, I leave the subject with him and them to determine as they may see fit. As I understand it, he thereby admits all the errors charged in my last communication. So mote it be. A TAXPAYER.

The one who did not steal it was put up on trial first, and the other chap was used as a witness, and his innocence was established. The other boy was then placed on trial, when the one just acquited came forward and swore that he had stolen the money himself.

☞ Mysterious Killing.—On Friday last the body of an unknown man, apparently a laborer or steamboat hand, was found floating in the river at Rochester, Beaver county. There were two bullet holes in the breast, and three knife wounds in his side, besides several bruises on different parts of the head and body. The body had the appearance of being in the water four or five weeks. The authorities are endeavoring to unravel the mystery.

☞ An Imposter.—The Lancaster papers caution the public against "an arrogant Imposter and Humbug" stopping in that city "aspiring to the dignity of a Doctor of medicine," who has been operating under several alies—at one time "Dr. Witmore," and at another "Dr. Lorentia," This scurvy scamp, that paper says, has been imposing upon silly people by selling pills at $5 per box, cheating printers, &c. We think the press of the State owe it, as well to the public as their own safety, to expose all such diabolical villians. Pass him round.

☞ Machine poetry, like the sewing machine or the photograph, is of modern invention; a specimen begins thus:—

Up in Podunk, where the thistle
Blooms, dies and rots;
Where the winter whirlwinds whistle
All around the lots.

Lives the slicked gal you ever
Saw in all your life:
Ankle like a blue beech lever,
Voice like a fife.

And the next two stanzas explain how the poet courted the girl, who, it appears, wore a check apron. But the denouement is sad:

And I stuck to her like teasels,
Summer and fall;
But she went off with the measles,
Ankle and all.

The author of the above is presumed to have died of grief. The editor of the Carlisle American, however, survives to grind out to the listening earth the subjoined:—

I've gazed on thy beauty resplendently fair
And, oft have admired that nutty brown hair,
While the blush o're your check as rapidly traveled
As a 2-40 hoss on a road newly graveled.
I've gazed on that beauty by the brilliant gas light
On that figure so graceful—so slender—so slight
And I've tho't of that beauty—that it might soon fade
And that part of that soft hair was surely a braid.

We decline publishing any more of this affecting strain, out of pity for our lady readers. The rest may (not) be found in the New York Corn Dodger for week after last.

A Horse Runs Mad.—On Thursday night last, a horse while confined in a stable in New York, was suddenly attacked with hydrophobia. The Post says:—The infuriated animal tore down with his teeth the manger, and then breaking loose, dashed out of the stable door into the yard, where he rushed wildly about, and then attempted to leap over a brick wall. He failed in this, but continued his attempts, although cut severely in the shoulders. A couple of men, not knowing what was the matter with the animal, approached to lead him again to the stable, when the horse made a fearful attack upon them, tearing completely out with his teeth, the bosom of the shirt of one of the men, and grasping hold of the shirt sleeve of the other. Fortunately the men were hardly scratched, the greatest damage being done to their clothes. A wagon was standing in the yard, and the enraged horse, howling and snorting with agony, seized the shaft between his teeth, and shaking the vehicle violently, wrenched the shaft entirely off. His dreadful distress seemed to search in this violent manner for some relief. At various times he emitted hideous noises painful to hear. Finally, to put him out of misery, he was shot and killed with a rifle.

☞ It is stated lately, but should apparently be received with some grains of allowance, that a bull raised near Palmyra, in New York, was so very ugly that it was decided to kill him. So the neighbors assembled and shot him full of balls, which only infuriated the beast. After a long time he was penned up and tied securely with ropes, with a two inch augur hole bored in his head; a pound of Dupont's best rifle powder was put in and rammed down, and his head blown to pieces. Thirty-five minutes after this his tail was in active montion, whisking flies off his hide.

A Terrible Atonement.—Alfred Hood, aged thirty-five, was recently sent to the Insane Asylum, near Cincinnati, having been crazed by remorse on account of a former too great intimacy with the wife of another man. He thought the husband was pursuing him to take his life. On the 4th, he fancied that the husband was about to drag him to hell, and thinking his life would be an atonement for what he had done, he severed his head almost entirely from his body with a razor.

☞ In a letter from St. Petersburgh we find the following paragraph: "Russia has every year lost an immense number of sheep by disease. Vaccination being resorted to, has been attended with the most satisfactory results, as it has been found that out of ten animals on which that precaution has been praticed, nine are able to resist all attacks, whereas formerly more than two fifths died.

Important Foreign News.

The steamer Weser, from Bremen, and the Steamer Borussia, from Hamburg, arrived at New York on Saturday evening, with Liverpool dates to the 2d inst.

The American clipper ship Panama, which sailed from Liverpool on the 27th ult., was (as reported per Adelaide,) wrecked off Wexford on the 28th, and, sad to say, no less than 386 lives were lost.

France refused the proffered mediation of England for the reason that after accepting Russia's proposal for holding a congress it would be an insult to the latter.

THE WAR COMMENCED—THE FIRST BATTLE.

The news by this arrival shows that the war has actually commenced, and that a battle has been fought between the Austrian and Sardinian forces.

The latest accounts from the seat of hostilities indicate that there was a sharp action at the famous bridge at Buffalora, crossing the river Ticino, on Thursday, the 28th ult. It was reported that the Austrians, after considerable loss, took the bridge at the point of the bayonet. It was reported also that Mortara had been taken. [This city is the capital of the province of Lewellina, on the river Arlogua, only some 25 miles from Alessandria.]

The Sardinians are reported to have retreated from Buffalora and Mortara, before the Austrians, to a point near Lake Maggiore, but as the telegraph lines to Switzerland had been cut by the Austrians, authentic accounts had not come to hand when the steamers sailed.

Austrian troops were concentrating in great masses at Piacenza, capital of the province of that name, thirty-six miles from Parma, and near the river Po.

Forty-thousand French troops were in Genoa at the latest advices.

The Kind of Sardinia, accompanied by Generals Canrobert and Niel, of the French army, had visited the line of the river Dura, an important tributary of the Po, one branch of which joins that river near Tura.

The Austrians on reaching Lake Maggiore are reported to have seized all the Sardinian vessels on its waters.

Austria is endeavoring to raise a loan of $20,000,000 sterling.

The Emperor Napoleon was expected to join the French army on the 3d inst.

The Prussian government had resolved to put the Prussian army in readiness to march.

Count Von Buol, the Austrian minister of foreign affairs, has forwarded circular notes to the foreign governments, stating the diplomatic and political reasons for declaring war by the Emperor against Sardina.

The Wiener Zeitung publishes Austrian decrees ordering an increase tax of the third class to be retained by the pay office immediately upon the interest of the public land being paid: Ordering a loan of £20,000,000 sterling to be raised, but adding that as it is at present impossible to contract it, the national bank will advance two-thirds of the nominal value of the loan in new notes.

The third decree releases the National bank from meeting its notes with specie payments.

The fourth decree orders duties and excise dues to be paid in silver, or payable in coupons of the national loan.

ENGLAND.

The note of preparation for war was sounding in England. A royal decree has been issued, offering a bounty of £10 to seamen, with the intention of recruiting ten thousand additional men. There was also great activity in the dock yards, and England is evidently preparing for war.

"You Wouldn't Bite a Blind Boy!"—On one of the Michigan Central Railroad Trains the other morning, an incident occurred which created considerable merriment. A blind boy, who has the run of the cars for the purpose of selling knick-knacks, entered the sleeping car supposing all the inmates were up and dressed. Walking through the car, he passed his hand along the berths to see if they were occupied, when it fell upon the face of a sleeper whose hirsute covering at once arrested the boy's attention. Stroking down the hairy coat, the boy commenced with, "Here, puppy—here, puppy!" and other expressions of fondness which a lover of the canine species would be likely to indulge in. The disturbed sleeper partially awoke under these manipulations, and, shaking his head, gave a loud snort. The boy jumped back in affright, yelling, "Get out! you wouldn't bite a blind boy! take him off!" without even yet comprehending the truth. The passengers roared with laughter, which did not all subside when the boy exclaimed, "La! I thought it was a puppy in the berth, and not a big bull dog."

☞ A dreadful accident, resulting from foolishness and carelessness combined, recently occurred at a law school near Gallatin, Tennessee, and is thus described by a correspondent of the New York Express: "The students were trying (illustrating) the Sickles case in moot court, when the young man who took the part of Sickles, jerked out a pistol which he did not know was loaded, and shot his most intimate friend, who was taking the part of Key, through the chest. Mr. Tap took the part of Sickles, and Mr. Burke the part of Key. It is a very sad thing, but the shot was purely accidental. It was at first thought that Mr Burke would recover, but mortification has taken place. Mr. Tap has suffered so much in mind that he has two or three times tried to kill himself, but been prevented by his young friends."

☞ In Frederick, Md., on Monday night, an attack was made on L B. Lent's circus company, while they were performing, by a large crowd of rowdies. Two of the circus men were badly hurt while protecting their property.—Two or three of the outsiders were hurt, but not seriously. The crowd set fire to the side canvass, which was burnt up. They also broke one or two wagons belonging to the circus. All the persons got out safe. The cause of this is said to be the price of tickets, which was fifty cents. The company refused to put the price at twenty-five cents, which had been done by others before them. It was feared another attack would be made.

Long and Short Days.—At Berlin and London the longest day has sixteen hours and a half; at Stockholm, the longest day has eighteen hours and a half; at Hamburg, the longest day has seventeen hours and the shortest seven; at St. Petersburg, the longest day has nineteen, and the shortest five hours; at Torneo, in Finland, the longest day has twenty-one hours and a half, and the shortest two hours and a half; at Wonderbus in Norway the day lasts from the 21st of May to the 22d of July, without interruption; and at Spitzbergen, the longest day is three months and a half.

Now and Then.—Thirty yeas ago, (1829) New England had 30 members in the House of Representatives, and the north-western States 18. Now the New England States send 29, and the north-western 59. New Hampshire then sent 6, and now has only 3 members; while Illinois then sending only 1 now has 9 members. The census of 1860 will make the disparity far greater than it is now. The census to be taken next year will show the population of the United States to be over 30,000,000 inhabitants.

☞ The Pike's Peak emigrants are reported to be in a suffering condition on the plains, being destitute of means and food. They were kept from starvation by the charity of the employees of the Overland Mail Company, who had afforded all the relief in their power to bestow.

Thrilling Incident.—Mr. J. T. Headley, in his "Diary of a Chaplain in the Army of the Revolution," relates the following: "At the battle of Bunker Hill, as the British were advancing through Charleston to the attack, a soldier entered a house where the husband lay sick. His wife was young and beautiful.—Hearing the soldier in the next room she went out to meet him. He immediately addressed insulting proposals to her Being angrily repulsed, he attempted violence, when her screams aroused her sick husband from his bed. Nerved with the sudden excitement he leaped up, and seeing his wife struggling in the hands of a British soldier, ran him through the body.—The man fell back on the floor, and as his eyes met those of his destroyer, he shrieked out, "My brother!" The recognition was mutual, and with the exclamation, "I have murdered my brother!" the over-excited invalid husband fell dead upon the corpse. These unhappy brothers were Scotchmen. One had emigrated to America several years before; the other had joined the English Army, and after a long separation thus met to perish together."

Strange History of a Murderer.—It was mentioned a few days ago that Felix Sanchez, a Cuban mulatto, who, in January last, killed his father-in-law, and stabbed his wife and mother-in-law in New York, had been arrested at New Orleans. The Bee further informs us: He was hid away in a Spaniard's house some fifteen days in New York. The Spaniard then took him to Baltimore, and by reason of his naturally dark skin managed to sell him as a negro for $1,400. He was subsequently taken to Mobile, where he was sold to a Mr. Brooks, and subsequently to a Mr. Ladbetter, who sent him here to be sold by Mr. Foster. The latter put him in the parish prison for safe keeping, where he was subsequently identified as the alleged murderer Sanchez is said to be the child of a free negress in Cuba, and the son of a wealthy Cuban planter. He has a wealthy uncle, he says, in New York, and was born in Trinidad de Cuba. The accused doubtless had to submit to being sold as a slave to prevent being exposed as a murderer.

The Waste of War.—In the sixteen years intervening between 1797 and 1815, the French army absorbed 4,556,000 men. The army of 1813 was composed of recruits from eighteen to twenty years of age. Of a million and a quarter raised in 1813, only one hundred thousand remained alive in 1814. France, in addition to this loss of her citizens, had to pay 700,000,000 francs as an indemnity of war to the allied powers, and 400,000,000 for the support of foreign garrisons. These figures show the cost of a war such as the powers of Europe are now about entering into.

☞ A few days since, in Cincinnati, Ohio, a little girl nine years old, daughter of Caleb Potter, was thrown into spasms, and came very near dying, from the effects of orange peel, which she had eaten the previous two or three days, stopping digestion and the regular operations of nature, and poisoning her system. An emetic saved her.

COMPLIMENTARY NOTICE.—We copy the following complimentary notice of our flourishing city and its magnificent Rail Road Hotel, from a late number of the Westchester Republican:—

ALTOONA.—We made a hasty visit to this point on the Pennsylvania Rail Road last week, and there is so much to attract a sight seer in that glorious mountain region, that at the risk of repeating ourselves, we are again induced to call attention to it, so that those who are thinking of a pleasant trip may make this one, in preference to going up the Hudson, or to Schooley's mountain or elsewhere. It lies at the foot of the Alleghenies and is a town flourishing under the auspices of the business centered there by the Pennsylvania Rail Road Company. The extensive work-shops of this company are there, and they have erected a hotel that is unsurpassed for extent and accommodations. We presume there is scarcely a house in any of our large cities that is more sumptuously kept.—Mr. Roe, the gentlemanly superintendent of the establishment is unremitting in his attentions to his guests, and he provides for them with all the delicacy and liberality of a prince. We have rarely sat down to a better table, and the sleeping apartments are provided with every imaginable comfort. The hotel has been but recently built, and yet it has already acquired a reputation extending to all parts of the Union. Travellers passing to and from the west have learned the fact that the good things of this world are to be found at the "Logan House," Altoona, and as a consequence many make it a point to stop there over night, enjoy a good supper and breakfast, a bed that is better than morphine to induce sleep, and air that is as pure and salubrious, if not as spicy, as that which comes from "Araby the blest." And then too, days can be spent there pleasantly and profitably, looking at the many wonderful things that are to be found in and around the mountains. The wonder to us is, that there are not two or three Logan Houses needed to accommodate the people wishing to go to such a place in summer, and we think after it is well known, it will be one of the first points of summer resort in the country.

The editor also pays a compliment to Mr. Wilson, Resident Engineer, and Col. T. A. Scott, for favors extended. He also paid a visit to Hollidaysburg, in noticing which he says the town "has one peculiarity, and that is, there is very little water drank there." We would ask to correct our contemporary by stating that the people of that town drink a great deal of water, but a duced sight more whiskey and lager to get at it, the water being in the bottom of the glass.

IS "DERANGE VILE."—A story is in circulation in town to the effect that a short time since our excellent Constable had two birds in the cage up street, one of whom was to be conveyed to Hollidaysburg on the evening train and the other to remain caged over night, having been found in the street in such a glorious state of obliviousness as to require the aid of an "Irish sulky" to convey him to the cage. Not wishing to leave the caged bird without some one to attend to his wants, he handed the cage key to one of our citizens with directions to visit the bird in the evening and see how he fared. True to his promise, the gentleman who received the key repaired to the cage and was there met by a couple of gents and ladies, who accompanied him into the cage, leaving the key on the outside of the door. Be it known that when the door of the cage is shut there is no way of opening it from the inside. By some means or other, while the parties referred to were talking with the bird in the cage, the door was closed, and the whole party was snugly and safely, but no doubt unwillingly, shut up in "derance vile." All efforts to open the door proved unavailing; it was shut and shut it was determined to stay. After vainly endeavoring to obtain egress from the cage, the party gave way to sundry expletives which were overheard by a passer-by, who, wishing to ascertain the cause therefor, ventured to open the door, whereupon the party came forth and explained their position to have been as we have stated. Hereafter we presume the gentleman will be careful on which side of the door he leaves the key when he visits such bird cages.

THE MISERLY MAN.—Everybody has a bad word to say of a miserly man. The preacher, the moralist, the wit, and the satirist are equally severe on the poor miser—whose very name was assigned to him by the Romans to signify that he is a wretch. Miser—miserable. The author of the Tin Trumpet says pointedly enough —"A miser is one who, though he loves himself better than all others, uses himself worse, for he lives a pauper in order to enrich his heirs, whom he naturally hates because he knows they hate him." But an old satirist has put the case more pointedly still; yet hardly beyond the truth:

How many a man, from love of pelf,
To stuff his coffers, starves himself;
Labors, accumulates and spares,
To lay up ruin for his heirs;
Grudges the poor their scanty dole;
Saves everything, except his soul;
And always anxious, always vexed,
Loses both this world and the next!

SLIGHTLY EXAGERATED.—Under the head of "Slaughtering Cattle," the Pittsburgh Daily Press, of Monday last, says that the Mail Train, West, on Saturday evening last, killed two cows at Petersburg and two at Tyrone. Just half of this story is true. One cow was killed at Petersburg and one a short distance below Tipton. We suppose the story was received third handed by the reporter of the Press, and in each case a cow was added. Increasing at this ratio, what an awful slaughter there would have been had the report passed through a dozen lips.

CORRECTION.—The last number of the Juniata Register attempts to curtail the circulation of the notes of the Central Bank of Pennsylvania, in that county, by insinuating that it is not a responsible institution. Though not personally acquainted with the controllers of the Bank named, we know enough about them by the representations of others, to pronounce the insinuations of the Register fale, and the Central Bank one of the best managed and most responsible institutions of the kind in the State. Gross injustice has been done worthy men by the Register, and we hope it will have the honor to retract.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD STATISTICS.—During the last year the Pennsylvania Railroad Company employed two hundred and nine engines on their road, which made 980,388 miles running with passenger trains, and 2,209,148 miles with freight trains. Total number of miles run by engines, 3,189,486, at a cost for repairs of $344,959 44.

Cost for fuel,	$282,762 02
" " oil and tallow,	34,609 29
Total cost of power without labor,	$542,330 75

The greatest mileage made by passenger trains was as follows: Between

Phil'a and Harrisburg,	Engine No.	27,	27,449
Harrisburg and Altoona,	"	" 109,	37,290
Altoona and Pittsburg,	"	" 55,	31,281
No. miles with three engines,			96,030

The greatest mileage with freight trains was made as follows: Between

Phil'a and Columbia,	Engine No.	171,	28,200
Columbia and Mifflin,	"	" 30,	24,172
Mifflin and Altoona,	"	" 146,	25,181
Altoona and Conemaugh,	"	" 51,	18,600
Conemaugh and Pittsb'g,	"	" 78,	25,479
Total number miles,			116,682

Thus engine No. 78 run 298 miles more than engine No. 186, which made the next highest number of freight miles. It will also be observed that engine No. 109 made 5,999 miles more than No. 55, which was the highest number of miles made by any passenger engine on the road. Therefore, it can be said that she is justly entitled to her old name "Gazelle."—The engineer of No. 109, Mr. J. P. Lowe, is one of the best in the country, and deservedly held in high estimation by the company. No road in the Union can boast a more intelligent reliable and safe engineer.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

A HINT TO THE LADIES.—It is very rarely indeed, that a confirmed flirt gets married. Ninety-nine out of every hundred old maids may attribute their ancient loneliness to juvenile levity. It is very certain that few men make selections from ball-rooms or any other place of the gayety; and as few are influenced by what may be called shewing off in the streets, or other allurements of dress. Our opinion is, ninety-nine hundredths of all the finery which woman decorate and load their person with, go for nothing, so far as husband catching is concerned. Where and how, then, do men find their wives? In the quiet homes of their parents and guardians, at the fireside, where domestic graces and feelings are alone demonstrated. These are the charms which most surely attract the high as well as humble. Against these all the finery and airs in the world sink into insignificance.

MAP OF BLAIR COUNTY.—The new map of Blair county is published and the agent is now in town delivering it to subscribers. It contains a complete diagram of the county, the mountains, valleys, hills, streams, towns, the location of iron works, ore banks and principal farms and the owners names, and the distances from one town to another measured within the county. It should be in the house of every citizen of the county who can raise the means to purchase it. It is got up in a substantial manner and the printing is well executed.—Around the margin of the map are plots of every town in the county. Price $5,00.

MILITARY MEETING.—A meeting of all persons favorable to the formation of a new Military company in this place, are requested to meet in the Tribune office, on Tuesday evening of next week, at half-past seven o'clock. We think there are enough of men in the place who do not belong to either of the existing companies to form a new company, and we hope they will come up on the evening appointed, give in their names and have a "say" in determining upon what style of a company it shall be.—Come along, gentlemen, you'll find a number on hand.

CRACKER PIE.—We observe the following recipe for making cracker pie, going the rounds of the papers. It is said the flavor of the pie resembles that of the apple, and during the scarcity of that fruit, if a substitute can be found, we know it will be acceptable to house-wives;

For two pies, take three soda crackers, pour over them five gills of boiling water, add two cups of sugar, a tea-spoon even full of tartaric acid, one table spoonful of essence lemon, to flavor, bake with two crusts, and eat while warm. Give it a trial ladies; you will be astonished at the result.

"The turnpike road to people's hearts I find,
Lies through their throats, or I mistake mankind."

So says Dr. Walcott, and we think he is correct, for if anything will touch the feelings and cause the heart to rejoice and be merry on a warm evening, it is the delicious ice cream served up nightly at the saloon of our friend Jacob Snyder, on Branch street, East Altoona. We sampled a saucer of it a few evenings since, and speak by the book when we say it is delicious. Ho, then, all ye who wish such a luxury (and who does not,) call around at Snyder's and get a saucer of ice cream—not frozen milk.

THANKS.—At a regular meeting of Veranda Lodge No. 532, I. O. of O. F., held on Tuesday evening, May 10th 1850, a vote of thanks was unanimously tendered to Mrs. Sarah Beals, for the presentation of a handsome scroll.

Also, a vote of thanks was tentered D. T. Caldwell and lady, for the present of a large and excellent pound cake.

Extract from the minutes

J. W. FRANTZ, Sec'y.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday evening last, an Irish lady, named Elizabeth Donahoe, aged about 52 years, who lived in the vicinity of Kittanning Point, on the Mountain above this place, was run over in the cut below the Point by the pusher of the Mail train, which was backing down the Mountain. As it was quite dark, the engineer did not see the woman, consequently no blame can be attached to him. The bumper of the tank appears to have struck the woman on the back, crushing it very much and throwing her forward on her head, which was also bruised. The engine afterwards passed over her body, severing one of her legs below the knee. A post mortem examination and inquest was held yesterday morning corroborating the above statement.

RED LION HOTEL.—This excellent house of entertainment passed into the hands of our good natured German friend, John Schweigert, on the first of April last, and he appears determined to keep up its reputation as a comfortable and convenient stopping place for travelers and others. John is one of the cleverest dutchmen we know, and will be so found by all who patronize his house. Having obtained license at the last term of court, he will always keep on hand a supply of choice liquors.

THE CIRCUS.—Rivers & Derious' Circus visited our town, according to appointment, on Tuesday last. Its advent created very little excitement, and we noticed but few people from the country. The evening entertainment was well attended. We observed but one drunken man during the day, and he was in the hands of our model Constable, on his "winding way" to the "Lock Up."

LICENSES GRANTED.—At the late term of Court, the following persons received license in this place:

Retailers License.—Nightwine & Woods, John Bowman, H. J. Conrad, W. F. Marriott, Albert Shultz, Matthew Otto, Jonathan Derno, John Nagle, J. B. Schweigert.

Wholesale License.—Levi Riling, Louis Plack.

EXHIBITION.—Mr. J. F. Keesberry gave two Phantasmagoria (or magic lantern) exhibitions in the Presbyterian Church in this place, on Monday and Tuesday evenings last, which were well attended. This exhibition is worth going to see and we bespeak for the proprietor a full house wherever he may stop.

☞ There are few articles of dress in which a lady appears to better advantage while promenading the streets, than a handsome mantilla, (man-killers they have been justly styled) and the place to find neat, handsome and seasonable articles of this kind is at J. & J. Lowthers' Model Store. Price only $3,00.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—The first Quarterly Meeting for the present Conference year will be held in the M. E. Church, on Saturday evening next. Love Feast at 9 o'clock Sunday morning. Preaching at half-past 10 o'clock A. M., by the Presiding Elder.

ATTENTION!—The attention of stockholders in the Altoona Gas and Water Company, is directed to the notice in another column, calling a meeting for the election of officers.

☞ See advertisement of Dr. Sandford's LIVER INVIGORATOR in another column.

WORMS! WORMS!

☞ A great many learned treatises have been written, explaining the origin of, and classifying the worms generated in the human system. Scarcely any topic of medical science has elicited more acute observation and profound research; and yet physicians are very much divided in opinion on the subject. It must be admitted, however, that, after all, a mode of expelling these worms, and purifying the body from their presence, is of more value than the wisest disquisitions as to the origin. The expelling agent has at length been found—Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge, prepared by Fleming Bros. in the mode sought after specific, and has already superseded all other worm medicines its efficacy being universally acknowledged by medical practitioners.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, manufactured by FLEMING BROS. of Pittsburgh, Pa. All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.

In all diseases inflammation more or less predominates—now to allay inflammation strikes at the root of disease—hence an immediate cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR, and nothing else, will allay inflammation at once, and make a certain cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR will cure the following among a great catalogue of diseases: Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Chafes, Sore Nipples, Corns, Bunions, Bruises, Sprains, Bites, Poison, Chilblains, Piles, Scrofula, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Felons, Ear Ache, Piles, Sore Eyes, Gout, Swellings, Rheumatism, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Baldness, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Barbers' Itch, Small Pox, Measles, Rash, &c., &c.

To some it may appear incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one article; such an idea will vanish when reflection points to the fact, that the salve is a combination of ingredients, each and every one applying a perfect antidote to its opposite disorder.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR

In its effects is magical, because the time is so short between disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury. It is scarcely necessary to say that no house, work-shop, or manufactory should be one moment without it.

No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraving, with the name of Henry Dalley, Manufacturer.

Sold by G. W. Kessler, Altoona; George A. Jacobs, Hollidaysburg; and by all the Druggists and patent medicine dealers throughout the United States and Canadas.

ALL ABOUT SHOES!

Gentlemen are Requested not to Read this

We do not boast of Auction Shoes
At shillings six a pair,
For sure no lady would them choose
That wants a shoe to wear.

Now very much we feel inclin'd
Such Gaiters to expose,
They are not good, and you will find
Them bursting round the toes.

Such ill-made Shoes you could not wear
We often with them meet;
Just made to sell, they rip and tear
When walking in the street.

A lady passing by one day
Was caused a deal of trouble,
Superbly dress'd in garments gay
And Shoes not worth a bubble.

New pair of Shoes, and good ones too,
As the dear lady thought,
Until her feet protruding though
Proclaimed them good for naught.

We pay the prices for our work
To have it honest made,
To worthy men who are in truth
The masters of their trade.

And we can boast of extra nice
Of beautiful and neat,
Of fairy Shoes at fairest price
To decorate the feet.

BOERHAVE'S
HOLLAND BITTERS.

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR

DYSPEPSIA,
DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND
FEVER AND AGUE,

And the various affections consequent upon a disordered STOMACH OR LIVER.

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave: Because of its great success in the most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medical virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

CAUTION.—The great popularity of this delightful remedy has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

EXTRAORDINARY SALE OF JEWELRY, with a Premium to each purchaser worth from Two Dollars to Two Hundred!

This is no Lottery, but a fair and legitimate sale, in which each purchaser gets the value of his or her money in a Gold Pencil with Gold Pen attached, or a Gold Locket, worth $5; and in addition to the purchase, each person receives a Premium of jewelry, not less in value than $2, and it may be worth $3, 5, 8, 10, 15, 20, 30, 50, or even $200!

Our Premiums are distributed in a fair and honorable manner, and as soon as the name of the purchaser is received with the $5, his Pencil and Pen and Premium, or Gold Locket and Premium, are put up in a small box, in a safe manner, and sent to the owner by Mail, Free of Postage. Our plan, from long experience in the above business, has given general satisfaction, as each purchaser can Sell or Trade the above articles for all they cost him, and retain the Premium Gratis.

☞ We want a good Agent in every part of the country to solicit purchasers; and Agents, to be successful, should first have a Pencil and Pen and Premium, or Locket and Premium, or both, to exhibit; and the first person becoming a Purchaser at any place will receive the Agency for that neighborhood.

NO MONEY RISKED!

We propose to let a person know what Premium he will receive before sending his money. Any Lady or Gentleman desiring one of the above articles, can first send us their name and address, stating whether they want the Pencil and Pen, or Locket, and we will make their selection, and inform them by return Mail what Premium they are entitled to. They can then have the privilege of sending for it if they choose. We cannot, however, give this privilege but once to any person; and we make this offer to establish the quality of our goods in a neighborhood. After a person becomes a purchaser, and accepts the Agency, we require all persons in that locality to send their $5 in advance through him.

And if any one is dissatisfied with their purchase, and an unbiassed person competent to judge says the articles are not worth more than the money paid for them, and in some cases Ten, or even Forty times the amount, let such person return the goods, and we will freely refund the money.

Among our Premiums are articles suitable for Ladies and Gentlemen, such as Gentlemen's Gold and Silver Watches, Gold Vest and Guard Chains, Gold Sleeve Buttons, Gold Watch Keys and Seals; Gold Shirt Studs—plain and with settings; Gold Scarf Pins—new style; Gold Breast Pins, California Diamond Pins, Gold Rings, &c. &c.

FOR LADIES,

We have Gold Watches, Florentine, Mosaic, Gold Stone, Cameo, Garnet and Coral Breast Pins and Ear Rings, Gold Bracelets, Gold Sleeve Buttons, Gold Belt Slides, Gold Rings, &c. &c. Also, Pianos, Melodeons, Musical Boxes, Accordeons, &c. &c.

☞ Unexceptionable References given whenever required.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. For Inflammatory Diseases only.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of being a remedy for all ills, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: Subdues inflammatory disease, whatever be its form or locality. This it does by equalizing the circulation, thereby removing the sole cause of inflamation.

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, Headache, Fits, Colds, Fevers, Inflamed Throat, Lungs, and Liver, Female Diseases Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Gout, Scrofula, Canker and all other forms of Inflamation are easily subdued by the New Medical Salt.

THE NEW MEDICAL SALT, is NO CURE-ALL, but does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizes the circulation by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions.

MULTITUDES HAVE TESTED the virtues of the New Medical Salt, though but lately discovered and introduced. Witness the testimonials and certificates of cure.

ALL WHO HAVE USED IT acknowledge a benefit from it.—An acquaintance of ours was cured of a severe case of Neuralgia in less than a week.

YOUR INVALUABLE MEDICINE is nobly fulfilling, in my case, all the promises which you made for it. A few doses also relieved my mother of a rush of blood to the head.

J. P. GILLINGHAM, Phila.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM was my complaint. The first package did the work effectually, as not a vestige of Rheumatism is left. G. H. DUNCAN, New York.

I KNOW IT IS GOOD for Rheumatism, removing it in a few hours. I am now trying it for Scrofula and have already received benefit. S. LESSIG, Reading.

I TRIED IT FOR ANEURISM of the Abdominal Aorta. In ten days the pain was gone.

T. W. FITZIMONS, M. D., Phila.

WE SPEAK BY THE BOOK. We have tried it. It has complete control over inflamation.

BRONCHITIS, CANKER, Rheumatism, and Neuralgia have been cured by it.

MANY MORE WOULD TESTIFY, if necessary. Descriptive Circulars, with testimonials may be obtained from any Druggists who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGGSWELL'S Antiphlogistic Salt. Price, One Dollar. Chronic Package, $2.50.

D. C. TAYLOR, & CO.,
Gen. Agents, 202 Dock St. Phila.

THE NEW MEDICAL SALT IS FOR SALE in Altoona, by A. Roush; Geo. A. Jacobs, Hollidaysburg, and by all enterprising druggists wherever the "Tribune" is read.
